11 authority are satisfied. To the extent feasible and practical, the proposal shall 12 provide for the return of any remaining equity to the source from which derived, 13 including insurers, providers, and covered persons. The proposal shall provide for 14 alternative dispensations in the event that returning any remaining equity is not 15 feasible or practical, such as using remaining cash assets in support of activities 16 providing an indirect benefit to the insurers, providers, and covered persons.

17 b0097/2.44*b. Dispose of the noncash assets of the authority as soon as 18 possible after the administrative offices of the authority are closed.

19 b0097/2.44*c. Make any other decisions and take any other actions necessary 20 to effectively wind up the operations and affairs of the authority and plan and 21 transfer responsibility to the office. All actions taken by the board must be consistent 22 with the purpose of, and may not endanger the solvency of, the plan.

23 b0097/2.44*8. ‘Transfer to the office.’ On the date that is 60 days after the 24 date coverage under the plan terminates under subdivision 1. b., all of the following

6 financial statements of the plan. For purposes of chapter 177 of the statutes, as 7 affected by this act, the dissolution, and winding up of the affairs, of the plan shall 8 be considered a dissolution of an insurer in accordance with section 645.44 of the 9 statutes, except that a court order of dissolution is not required to effect the 11 b0097/2.44b. All remaining cash assets of the plan, including the balance in 12 the Health Insurance Risk-Sharing Plan fund, are transferred to the appropriation 13 account under section 20.145 (5) (g) of the statutes, as created by this act.

14 b0097/2.44c. All tangible personal property, including records, of the 15 authority not already disposed of by the board is transferred to the office.

16 b0097/2.44d. All contracts and agreements entered into by the board that 17 are in effect are transferred to the office. The office shall carry out any contractual

19 terminates or is modified or rescinded by the office to the extent allowed under the 20 contract or agreement. The office may enter into such other contracts as are 21 necessary to carry out the dissolution of the plan.

22 b0097/2.44e. Any matters pending with the authority or plan, including

6 committee consisting of the commissioner, or his or her designee, and the other 13 7 members of the board holding office on the date the advisory committee is created.

8 *b0097/2.44*b. If a vacancy occurs on the Health Insurance Risk–Sharing
